US A9 edits to PRP chapter

No I stopped incorporating all info as of last Fri May 13 7:45am version in the attached:

Then I started sending you individual input I received that I didn't see your side cc'ed on (I think that was just 2 A9 pieces). Got some more comments but I can't figure them out so don't want to send them. I'll take a look once I've seen a clean copy from your side and hopefully these comments are no longer valid.

...but he says he will have time to review this PM. It seems to make sense to include all the most recent info. I'll start that soon. Let me know if I would be duplicating anything you're doing.
